Task 1

Work with a partner and play the following dialogue.

Customer: Good morning.

Assistant: Good morning, sir/madam. Can I help you?

Customer: I hope so. I'm looking for an unusual pet.

Assistant: You've come to the right place, sir/madam. All our pets are unusual.

Customer: I'm not sure what I want. It's a birthday present for my mother.

Assistant: How about an angel fish that sings?

Customer: What does it sing?

Assistant: Sea shanties mostly.

Customer: No, I don't think so. What else have you got?

Assistant: In this tank over here we've got an octopus that can cook gourmet meals.

Customer: Really? What can it cook?

Assistant: Anything you want: French, Italian, Spanish, Chinese. The only thing it won't cook is paella. And it can cater for up to eight people.

Customer: Well, yes. I think Mum might like that.

Assistant: I'm sure she'd love it, sir/madam. And at only three hundred and fifty-six Euros it's a real bargain.

Customer: Well, I'm not sure. It's a bit more than I wanted to spend.

Assistant: How about a deal? If you buy the octopus, we'll give you the singing angel fish for free. And if your mother doesn't like sea shanties, she can enjoy the angel fish lightly grilled with chips and a slice of lemon.

Customer: That sounds good. OK, it's a deal.
