

Materialaufstellung und Hinweise zu den einzelnen Stationen

Grammar

Die Seiten 3 bis 19 sind in entsprechender Anzahl zu kopieren und den Schülern bereitzulegen. Als Möglichkeit zur Selbstkontrolle können Lösungsseiten erstellt werden. Manchmal sind offene Aufgaben mit individuellen Lösungen vorhanden, die im Plenum besprochen werden sollten.

S. 3	Station 1 A	Simple past: Stift + Marker
S. 4	Station 1 B	Simple past: Stift
S. 5	Station 2	Present perfect: Stift + Marker
S. 6	Station 3	Simple present passive: Stift + Marker
S. 7	Station 4	Present progressive passive: Stift + Marker
S. 8	Station 5	Simple past passive: Stift + Marker
S. 9	Station 6	Past progressive passive: Stift
S. 10	Station 7	Present perfect passive: Stift + Audio-CD (Track 3)
S. 11	Station 8	Past perfect passive: Stift + Englisch/Deutsch-Wörterbuch
S. 12	Station 9	Used to + infinitive: Stift + 2 Marker + Heft
S. 13	Station 10	Present participles: Marker + Stift + Englisch/Deutsch-Wörterbuch
S. 14	Station 11	Past participles: Stift + Audio-CD (Track 4)
S. 15	Station 12 A	Past participles in relative sentences: Stift
S. 16	Station 12 B	Past participles in relative sentences: Stift
S. 17	Station 13 A	Reported speech 1: Stift + Audio-CD (Track 5)
S. 18	Station 13 B	Reported speech 1: Stift
S. 19	Station 14	Reported speech 2: Stift + Audio-CD (Track 6)

Download
zur Ansicht

Route Card

for _____

Obligatory stations

Station number	done	checked
number _____
number _____
number _____
number _____
number _____
number _____
number _____
number _____
number _____
number _____
number _____
number _____
number _____
number _____
number _____

Download
zur Ansicht

Simple past

Task 1

Highlight in the text below all the verbs in the simple past. There are 15 of them.

Adam and Eve were usually very happy. But one day Adam returned home late. Eve was jealous. "Did you meet somebody?" she asked. "Were you with another woman? Was she prettier than me?"

Adam told her that there wasn't another woman. There couldn't be another woman. For a simple reason. There weren't any other women! Eve didn't believe him. She ran her fingers down his chest.

"What are you doing?" Adam wanted to know.

"I'm counting your ribs," Eve said.

Task 2

Complete the following grammatical explanation with words and sentences from the text above.

1. The verb be has two simple past forms: _____ and _____.

2. Negations are formed with a short form of not:

Adam told her that there _____ another woman.

There _____ any other women!

3. Questions are formed like this:

_____ woman?

_____ me?

Simple past

Task 3

Complete the following grammatical explanation with words and sentences from the text on 1A.

1. Modal verbs form the negation in the simple past with a short form of not + the infinitive form of the verb: There _____ another woman!

2. Other verbs form the negation in the simple past with didn't + infinitive:

Eve _____ him.

3. They also use did to form questions in the simple past:

_____?

Task 4

Write in the simple past forms of the verbs in brackets.

A man (walk¹) _____ out of the restaurant late at night into heavy rain.

He (pull up²) _____ the collar of his raincoat and (look for³) _____ for a taxi. He (see⁴) _____ a taxi about 50 metres away.

It (s. be) _____ parked in front of a block of flats.

It (seem⁶) _____ to be empty and he (run⁷) _____ towards it. Just as he (reach⁸) _____ a young woman (step⁹) _____ out of the

Download
zur Ansicht?

Present perfect

Task 1

Highlight the verb forms in the present perfect. The first one is done for you

Mrs Brady's washing machine has broken down. She has phoned the repair service and they have told her that a repairman will call that afternoon. Probably sometime around 2.30. After lunch Mrs Brady remembers that she has made an appointment with her dentist for 1.30 that afternoon. She might be late returning home and miss the repairman. And how will she know if the repairman has been there while she was out? Mrs Brady thinks about the problem and then writes this message and tapes it to her front door:

Dear Repairman,

Please tick the correct statement:

- I have been.
 I haven't been.

Thank you,
 Mrs P. Brady

Task 2

What are the perfect participle forms of these verbs from the text above?

- | | |
|-------------------|----------------|
| 1. remember _____ | 4. know _____ |
| 2. return _____ | 5. think _____ |
| 3. miss _____ | 6. write _____ |

Simple present passive

Task 1

Highlight the eleven simple present passive forms in the following text. The first one is done for you.

A man sees a sign in the window of a travel agency. A river cruise is offered for only fifty dollars. He goes inside and is given a brochure. He is asked to pay cash. When the money is paid he is shown into another room. As he enters he is hit on the head from behind. He is carried out of the back door and is thrown into the river. A few minutes later another man asks about the cheap river cruise and is given the same treatment. Ten minutes later the two men are woken up by a flock of noisy seagulls. They are floating down the river side by side. The first man says, "I'm hungry. Is food served on this cruise?" The other man says: "I doubt it. I went on the same cruise last year and they didn't give us anything to eat then either."

Task 2

Complete the text with the simple present passive forms of the verbs in brackets.

Cats, it (say¹) _____, make good pets. My cat Lucy is a demon from hell.

'Lucy' is short for 'Lucifer'! She (fear²) _____ by all my neighbours. When she's around birds (kill³) _____ children (scratch⁴) _____, cups (break⁵) _____ and flower beds (devastate⁶) _____!

When the phone rings I (call/ask⁷) _____, if a cat called Lucy belongs to me. That's why her name (write⁸) _____ on her collar. There is Present progressive passive

Task 1

The present progressive also has a passive form. Find the five examples in this text and highlight them.

When the zoo director answers his phone an angry voice says: "This party is out of control! My patience and my hospitality are being abused! I'm being treated like a servant. My wife is being kissed, my cigars are being smoked and my best whisky is being drunk!"
The zoo director is puzzled. "Why are you calling me? They're not my guests."
"Oh, yes they are!" the man shouts. "Your monkeys have escaped!"

Task 2

Complete the sentences with the present progressive passive forms of the verbs in brackets.

1. (report)

The following things _____ to the emergency operator:

2. (attack)

A man _____ by a gang of skinheads!

3. (rob)

A young boy _____ by four bigger kids!

4. (chase)

A teenage girl _____ by a vicious pitbull!

5. (sell)

Download zur Ansicht

Simple past passive

Task 1

Find the five passive forms of the simple past in the text below. The first one is done for you.

A group of tourists were taken on a tour of the Dominican Republic. In Santo Domingo their coach stopped in front of an old monument. They were told by the tour guide that it was the tomb of Columbus. "When I was in Spain last year I was taken to Seville," one of the tourists said. "I was shown Columbus's tomb there."

The tour guide thought quickly and replied: "The one in Seville was built for the old Christopher Columbus. This is the tomb of the young Christopher Columbus."

Task 2

Fill in the simple past passive forms of the verbs in brackets.

Schoolbooks must change with the times. This is a typical maths problem from a 1961 school text book:

A small wood (own¹) _____ by a farmer. He needed money for a new tractor, so the old trees in the wood (sell²) _____ to a timber merchant for $ 12 000. Then the timber (load³) _____ onto large trucks. It (take⁴) _____ to a saw mill and there it (cut⁵) _____ into planks which (sell⁶) _____ a few years later for $ 18 500. The timber merchant's production costs (compute⁷) _____ to be 10% of

Download zur Ansicht

Past progressive passive

Task

Read the following grammatical explanation carefully and then fill in the past progressive passive forms of the verbs in the text below.

The active form of the past progressive is formed with was/were and the ing-form of the verb:

Ex.: A man was cutting the grass.

We were redecorating the upstairs rooms.

The passive form of the past progressive is formed with was/were being and the perfect participle (the third form of the verb).

Ex.: The grass was being cut.

The upstairs rooms were being redecorated.

A big advert in the local newspaper informed me that 'Green Week' (celebrate¹) _____ _____ in a big local supermarket. When I went in I saw that customers (informed²) _____ by large posters about environmentally-friendly packaging and they (offer³) _____ _____ samples of ecologically-grown food products. At the check-out customers (give⁴) _____ _____ recycled paper carrier bags. The woman ahead of me didn't want a paper bag and she asked for a plastic bag. The sales assistant explained that all customers (encourage⁵) _____
 _____ to help the environment

Download zur Ansicht

Present perfect passive

Task 1

Read the following grammatical explanation carefully and then fill in the present perfect passive forms of the verbs in the text below.

The active form of the present perfect is formed with has/have and the perfect participle (the third form of the verb):

Ex.: An assistant has cut my hair.

The salesmen have sold six cars today.

The passive form of the present perfect is formed with has/have been and the perfect participle.

Ex.: My hair has been cut.

Six cars have been sold today.

The employees of an investment firm are moving into new offices which (rent¹) _____ _____ on the 6th floor of a new building. An employee goes to the office manager and complains: "I was in the men's toilets. All the cubicles there (lock²) _____ from the inside! And inside the cubicles all the windows (open³) _____!"

The office manager phones the maintenance manager of the building. He tells her about the toilets and asks: "(the cubicles/paint?⁴) _____

_____. I (not inform⁵) _____

_____ about any repairs."

The maintenance manager explains: "Your toilets (use⁶) _____

Download zur Ansicht

Past perfect passive

Task 1

Fill in the past perfect passive forms (had been + perfect participle) of the verbs in brackets.

A big German firm (challenge¹) _____ to two 8-man boat races by an Indian competitor. On the first day the first boat race (won²) _____ by the Indian boat. The German boat (beat³) _____ by 80 metres!

A research firm (hire⁴) _____ by the German firm to advise them. The first boat race (film⁵) _____. The film (analyse⁶) _____ by a group of experts. They reported that the Indian boat had had a crew of one manager and seven rowers. The German crew had been the managing director, his personal assistant, a tax consultant, an accountant, two office managers and only two rowers. On top of this the two rowers (undermine⁷) _____ by low motivation.

After he (give⁸) _____ this report, the managing director thought for a full thirty seconds and then announced, "We'll restructure!"

On the day of the race the same Indian team lined up in front of their boat. The German team

Download zur Ansicht

Used to + infinitiveTask 1

Read the following text carefully and highlight in one colour all the used to + infinitive constructions. Now highlight in another colour all the normal simple past verb forms.

Mavis met her husband at the pub where she used to work as a barmaid. A van from a local brewery used to arrive every Monday morning and deliver crates of beer and soft drinks. After unloading the driver used to sign the delivery note and give it to Mavis for her to check. One Monday morning Mavis noticed that the driver was new and very good-looking. He wrote something on the delivery note and gave it to Mavis. She looked at it and said, "Oh, Socrates is a lovely name. Are you Greek?" The driver laughed and said, "No, that's what I've delivered – 50 CRATES."

Task 2

Rewrite these sentences using the 'used to + infinitive' construction.

1. When Melinda was a little girl she sucked her thumb.

2. It annoyed her mother.

3. She said, "If you keep sucking your thumb, you're going to blow up like a balloon!"

4. Melinda goes to church on Sunday mornings.

Download zur Ansicht

Present participles

Task 1

Highlight the 9 examples of the present participle (-ing-form) in the following text. The first one is done for you.

While hurrying to catch my bus one winter morning, I slipped on the ice. Falling heavily, I hurt my knees and broke the reading glasses lying in my breast pocket. Looking up I saw an elderly lady hurrying towards me. Thinking she wanted to help me I smiled at her to show her I was OK and started to get up. Stopping next to me she asked in a rude and demanding tone of voice, "What time is the next bus?"

Task 2

Complete this text with the present participle forms of the verbs in brackets.

After (raise¹) _____ a family, Mrs Bradley returned to work. After an absence of nearly twenty years she knew very little about modern computers and word processors.

(give²) _____ her two thick 350-page handbooks, her new boss told her to read them through.

(come³) _____ into the office the next day he heard her (swear⁴) _____ at the computer.

"It's all very simple," he told her in a (speak⁵) _____ manner. "All you need to do is read the handbooks carefully and think logically."

What is the meaning of the word 'demanding'?

Past participles

Task 1

Fill in the past participles of the following verbs. The first one is done for you.

- | | |
|------------------------------------|-----------------|
| 1. break _____ broken _____ | 9. hide _____ |
| 2. bring _____ | 10. know _____ |
| 3. buy _____ | 11. steal _____ |
| 4. catch _____ | 12. take _____ |
| 5. draw _____ | 13. tear _____ |
| 6. drink _____ | 14. tell _____ |
| 7. forget _____ | 15. wear _____ |
| 8. freeze _____ | 16. write _____ |

Task 2  "Track 4"

First listen to the text on the audio-CD and then fill in the past participles which are missing in the text below. Listen to the audio-CD again and check your answers.

On three consecutive nights an expensive dress was _____¹ from a London clothes boutique. When _____² about this the next day the police searched the shop after closing time.

A man _____³ inside a cupboard was obviously the thief.

Download zur Ansicht

Participles in relative sentences

Task 1

Rewrite the following relative sentences using either a present participle (-ing-form) or a perfect participle. The first one is done for you.

1. Harriet is the girl ~~who is~~ playing snooker with Dave.

Harriet is the girl playing snooker with Dave.

2. This is the wedding dress that was worn by Queen Mary.

3. The racehorse that is called 'Rough Diamond' belongs to the Aga Khan.

4. The angry little man who is shouting and swearing is our nicest neighbour.

5. This is a story that was told to me by my Welsh grandmother.

6. The waitress who is serving us is a Doctor of Philosophy.

7. This is the actual radio that was used by Marconi in 1909.

Download zur Ansicht

Participles in relative sentences

Task 2

Join the following sentences together using a present participle. The first one is done for you.

1. The reporter read a text message on her mobile phone. She drove to the football stadium.

Reading a text message on her mobile phone, the reporter drove to the football stadium.

2. She saw the police fighting with football hooligans. She stopped her car.

3. She picked up her camera. She jumped out of the car.

4. She ran towards the fighting. She took lots of photos.

5. She stood behind a phone box. She put a new memory card in her camera.

6. She noticed a man picking up a brick. She moved closer.

7. The man shouted loudly. He threw the brick at the policemen.

8. The man took out his camera. She saw the brick hit a policeman.

Download zur Ansicht

Reported speech 1

Task 1  "Track 5"

Listen to a shoe salesman and a lady customer on the audio-CD and then complete the dialogue below.

Mr Bundy: _____, madam?

Mrs Day: Yes, _____. I'm looking for a pair of _____,
open-toed _____.

Mr Bundy: What _____, madam?

Mrs Day: My size _____.

Mr Bundy: _____ sure? You look like a size _____ _____ to me!

Mrs Day: Oh! _____! I'm leaving here at once!

Task 2  "Track 5"

Now listen to the audio-CD again and check your answers.

Task 3

The following text is the dialogue from above in reported speech. The reporting verbs are in the simple present. What are the missing personal pronouns?

Mr Bundy asks the woman if _____ can help _____. The woman tells

Download zur Ansicht

Reported speech 1 B

Task 4

When the reporting verb is in the simple past, all the other tenses go back 'one step'. The following table shows this backshift of tenses. Fill in the missing tenses.

DIRECT SPEECH	⇒ REPORTED SPEECH (with said, told, etc.)
1. simple present	⇒ _____
2. present progressive	⇒ _____
3. simple past	⇒ _____
4. past progressive	⇒ _____
5. present perfect	⇒ _____
6. present perfect progressive	⇒ _____
past perfect	⇒ past perfect (no change)
7. am/is/are going to	⇒ _____
8. will-future	⇒ _____ + infinitive
9. can	⇒ _____
10. may	⇒ _____

Task 5

Complete the following sentences in reported speech.

Download zur Ansicht

Reported speech 2

Task 1  "Track 6"

First listen to the audio-CD. Then fill in the missing words.

Colin: I'm going _____¹ tomorrow. Would you like to go with me?

Mary: Yes, thanks. When are you leaving?

Colin: I'll meet you outside your house _____². Is that OK?

Mary: That's fine. Where are we going?

Colin: Do you know that little _____³ near Marston?

Mary: Oh, yes. I've been there with my brother. I love it there.

Colin: It's nearly _____⁴. Is your bike OK?

Mary: Yes, it's fine. I'll make some sandwiches. Do you like cheese and tomato and tuna fish?

Colin: I don't like cheese much, but tuna fish sandwiches would be great. I'll bring a big thermos with coffee. Do you drink your coffee with _____⁵?

Mary: Well, I don't really like coffee, actually. Take a small thermos of coffee for yourself. I'll bring a thermos of tea.

Colin: You needn't do that. I'll make tea. Don't forget to bring a raincoat. It could be rainy.

Mary: We don't need raincoats. I've got something much better.

Colin: _____⁶

Download zur Ansicht

Task 1:

Adam and Eve were usually very happy. But one day Adam returned home late. Eve was jealous. "Did you meet somebody?" she asked. "Were you with another woman? Was she prettier than me?" Adam told her that there wasn't another woman. There couldn't be another woman. For a simple reason. There weren't any other women! Eve didn't believe him. She ran her fingers down his chest. "What are you doing?" Adam wanted to know. "I'm counting your ribs," Eve said.

Task 2:

1. was, were; 2. wasn't, weren't; 3. Were you with another woman? Was she prettier than me?; 4. asked, returned, wanted, could, did, ran, said, told

Task 3:

1. couldn't be, 2. didn't believe, 3. Did you meet somebody?

Task 4:

1. walked, 2. pulled up, 3. looked for, 4. saw, 5. was, 6. seemed, 7. ran, 8. reached, 9. stepped, 10. went, 11. pushed, 12. fell, 13. shouted, 14. smiled, 15. said, 16. felt, 17. turned, 18. stood

Task 1:

Mrs Brady's washing machine has broken down. She has phoned the repair service and they have told her that a repairman will call that afternoon. Probably sometime around 2.30. After lunch Mrs Brady remembers that she has made an appointment with her dentist for 1.30 that afternoon. She might be late returning home and miss the repairman. And how will she know if the repairman has been while she was out? Mrs Brady thinks about the problem and then writes this message and tapes it to her front door:

Dear Repairman,
Please tick the correct statement.

I have been .

I haven't been .

Thank you

Task 2:

1. remembered, 2. returned, 3. missed, 4. known, 5. thought, 6. written

Task 3:

1. has arrived, 2. How have you kept ...? 3. have never drunk, have never smoked, 3. have never stood up for, 3. have never zur

Task 1:

A man sees a sign in the window of a travel agency. A river cruise is offered for only fifty dollars. He goes inside and is given a brochure. He is asked to pay cash. When the money is paid he is shown into another room. As he enters he is hit on the head from behind. He is carried out of the back door and is thrown into the river. A few minutes later another man asks about the cheap river cruise and is given the same treatment. Ten minutes later the two men are woken up by a flock of noisy seagulls. They are floating down the river side by side. The first man says, "I'm hungry. Is food served on this cruise?" The other man says: "I doubt it. I went on the same cruise last year and they didn't give us anything to eat then either."

Task 2:

1. is said, 2. is feared, 3. are killed, 4. are scratched, 5. are broken, 6. are devastated, 7. 'm/am often asked, 8. is written, 9. are printed, 10. 'm/am regarded, 11. is taken off

Task 1:

When the zoo director answers his phone an angry voice says: "This party is out of control! My patience and my hospitality are being abused! I'm being treated like a servant. My wife is being kissed, my cigars are being smoked and my best whisky is being drunk!" The zoo director is puzzled. "Why are you calling me? They're not my guests." "Oh, yes they are!" the man shouts. "Your monkeys have escaped!"

Task 2:

1. are being reported, 2. is being attacked, 3. is being robbed, 4. is being chased, 5. are being sold, 6. is being broken into, 7. are being thrown, 8. I'm being followed

Task 1:

A group of tourists were taken on a tour of the Dominican Republic. In Santo Domingo their coach stopped in front of an old monument. They were told by the tour guide that it was the tomb of Columbus. "When I was in Spain last year I was taken to Seville," one of the tourists said. "I was shown Columbus's tomb there." The tour guide thought quickly and replied: "The one in Seville was built for the old Christopher Columbus. This is the tomb of the young Christopher Columbus."

Task 2:

1. was shown, 2. were taken, 3. was loaded, 4. was taken, 5. was cut, 6. were sold, 7. were calculated, 8. was

Station 8: Past perfect passive

page 11

Task 1:

1. had been challenged, 2. had been won, 3. had been beaten, 4. had been hired, 5. had been filmed, 6. had been analysed, 7. had been undermined, 8. had been given, 9. had been fired, 10. had been strengthened

Station 9: Used to + infinitive

page 12

Task 1:

Mavis met her husband at the pub where she used to work as a barmaid. A van from a local brewery used to arrive every Monday morning and deliver crates of beer and soft drinks. After unloading the driver used to sign the delivery note and give it to Mavis for her to check.

One Monday morning Mavis noticed that the driver was new and very good-looking. He wrote something on the delivery note and gave it to Mavis. She looked at it and said, "Oh, Socrates is a lovely name. Are you Greek?" The driver laughed and said, "No, that's what I've delivered – 50 CRATES."

Task 2:

1. When Melinda was a little girl she used to suck her thumb. 2. It used to annoy her mother. 3. She used to say, "If you keep sucking your thumb, you're going to blow up like a balloon!" 4. Melinda and her mother used to go to church on Sunday mornings. 5. Afterwards Melinda's mother used to chat to her friends outside the church.

Task 3:

Mrs Davies once thought her flowers had blackfly. She used to spray them every day, but nothing worked. And then one day she discovered why. Her husband used to burn the toast almost every morning. He then used to take the black toast outside and scrape it over the flower-bed!

Station 10: Present participles

page 13

Task 1:

While hurrying to catch my bus one winter morning, I slipped on the ice. Falling heavily, I hurt my knees and broke the reading glasses lying in my breast pocket. Looking up I saw an elderly lady hurrying towards me. Thinking she wanted to help me I smiled at her to show her I was OK and started to get up. Stopping next to me she asked in a rude and demanding tone of voice, "What time is the next bus?"

Task 2:

1. raising, 2. Giving, 3. Crying, 4. swearing, 5. scolding, 6. Smiling, 7. handing, 8. reading 9. thinking

Task 3:

1. verb, 2. ein jubelndes Publikum, 3. ein gellender Schrei, 4. brennender Ehrgeiz.

Task 1:

2. This is the wedding dress worn by Queen Mary. 3. The racehorse called 'Rough Diamond' belongs to the Aga Khan. 4. The angry little man shouting and swearing is our nicest neighbour. 5. This is a story told to me by my Welsh grandmother. 6. The waitress serving us is a Doctor of Philosophy. 7. This is the actual radio used by Marconi in 1909. 8. Is that the painting by Picasso sold for 3 million Euros? 9. We filmed a man playing drums, cymbals, an accordion and a trumpet. 10. Where is the gun found near the crime scene? 11. Mike was still wearing the shirt torn in the accident.

Task 2:

2. Seeing the police fighting with football hooligans, she stopped her car. 3. Picking up her camera, she jumped out of the car. 4. Running towards the fighting, she took lots of photos. 5. Standing behind a phone box, she put a new memory card in her camera. 6. Noticing a man picking up a brick, she moved closer. 7. Shouting loudly, the man threw the brick at the policemen. 8. Looking through her camera, the reporter saw the brick hit a policeman. 9. Holding his head, the policeman fell to the ground. 10. Seeing what had happened, the other hooligans cheered and clapped. 11. Connecting her camera to her mobile phone, she sent the photos to her newspaper.

Task 1:

Mr Bundy: Can I help you, madam?

Mrs Day: Yes, please. I'm looking for a pair of red, open-toed sandals.

Mr Bundy: What size are you, madam?

Mrs Day: My size is eight and a half.

Mr Bundy: Are you sure? You look like a size eighteen and a half to me!

Mrs Day: Oh! You're very rude! I'm leaving here at once!

Task 3:

1. he, 2. her, 3. him, 4. she, 5. her, 6. She, 7. him, 8. her, 9. her, 10. she, 11. she, 12. him, 13. he, 14. she

Task 4:

1. simple past, 2. past progressive, 3. past perfect, 4. past perfect progressive, 5. past perfect, 6. past perfect progressive, 7. was/were going to, 8. would + infinitive, 9. could + infinitive, 10. might + infinitive

Task 5:

1. The taxi driver wanted to know where Sharon/the passenger wanted to go. 2. Sharon asked the taxi driver to take her to the park. 3. The taxi driver asked her/Sharon if she wanted to put her suitcase in the boot.

Task 1:

1. fishing, 2. at 6:30, 3. lake, 4. 20/twenty miles, 5. milk and sugar, 6. What's that? 7. dry

Task 3:

Colin told Mary that he was going fishing the next day and asked her if she would like to go with him. Mary told him that she would and asked him when he was leaving. Colin said that he would meet her outside her house at 6.30 and he asked if that was OK. Mary said that was fine and asked (him) where they were going. Colin asked if she knew the little lake near Marston. Mary told him that she had been there with her brother and that she loved it there. Colin said that it was nearly twenty miles and asked Mary if her bike was OK. Mary told him that it was fine and that she would make some sandwiches. She asked (Colin/him) if he liked cheese and tomato and tuna fish. Colin answered that he didn't like cheese much, but that tuna sandwiches would be great. He said that he would bring a big thermos with coffee and he asked if Mary drank it with milk and sugar. Mary said that she didn't like coffee and that he should just take a small thermos of coffee for himself. She would bring a thermos of tea. Colin told her that she needn't (didn't have to) do that. He would make tea. He reminded her to bring a raincoat because it could be rainy. Mary told him that they didn't need raincoats. She had (got) something much better. Colin asked what it was. Mary told him that she would borrow her brother's mobile phone. Colin wanted to know what good that was because it wouldn't keep them dry! Mary replied that it would because if the weather looked bad she could call her Dad and he would pick them up.

Download
zur Ansicht

Transcripts of the listening comprehensions

Track 3 – Station 7: Present perfect passive, Task 2 (Grammar, S. 10)

The employees of an investment firm are moving into new offices which have been rented on the 6th floor of a new building. An employee goes to the office manager and complains: "I was in the men's toilets. All the cubicles there have been locked from the inside! And inside the cubicles all the windows have been opened!" The office manager phones the maintenance manager of the building. He tells her about the toilets and asks: "Have the cubicles been painted? I haven't been informed about any repairs." The maintenance manager explains: "Your toilets have been used by the window-cleaners. They climb in and out of the windows and they have forgotten to unlock the doors!"

Track 4 – Station 11: Past participles, Task 2 (Grammar, S. 14)

On three consecutive nights an expensive dress was stolen from a London clothes boutique. When told about this the next day the police searched the shop after closing time. A man discovered inside a cupboard was obviously the thief. And hidden under his jacket was an expensive crushed-silk evening dress. The man appeared in court the next morning. When shown a dress the man admitted it was the one taken from the boutique. Asked by the judge why he had broken into the same shop four times, the thief sighed and said, "My wife loves their clothes, Your Honour. But she didn't like the colour of the first three dresses."

Track 5 – Station 13A: Reported speech 1, Tasks 1 and 2 (Grammar, S. 17)

Mr Bundy is a shoe salesman. One morning a woman with very big feet comes into his shop:
Mr Bundy: Can I help you, madam?
Mrs Day: Yes, please. I'm looking for a pair of red, open-toed sandals.
Mr Bundy: What size are you, madam?
Mrs Day: My size is eight and a half.
Mr Bundy: (Laughs) Are you sure? You look like a size eighteen and a half to me!
Mrs Day: Oh! You're very rude! I'm leaving here at once!

Track 6 – Station 13B: Reported speech 2, Tasks 1 and 2 (Grammar, S. 19)

Downloaded
zur Ansicht